“Wylie Gustafson is the coolest cowpoke around.” Singer, songwriter, rancher, horseman, and the original, world-famous Yahoo! yodeler, – Wylie Gustafson leads the musical outfit known as The Wild West.

Summit Tips

- Please wear your badge at all times.
If you lose your badge please visit our command post on the first floor of the Phyllis J. Washington School of Education.
- Double-check that cell phones and electronic devices are turned off throughout the Summit.
- Please be sure to take your seats promptly after meals and breaks.
We have a full program and must remain on schedule. If you leave the theater during the program, you may be asked to wait in the lobby until the next scheduled break.
- All food should be restricted to the Montana Theater lobby, please do not return to your seat with anything other than bottled water. Snacks and beverages will be plentiful throughout the day.
- If you have questions or need assistance, please look for our volunteers wearing an Adventures orange shirt.
- Audience members and participants may be photographed or otherwise recorded for use by Student Achievement & Advocacy Services and The University of Montana.
- Two seats are reserved at every dining table for Mentors.
